

FAQ

1. How can I participate in your conference?

You can participate in our conference as a presenter & as well as attendee (observer).

2. What is the procedure to apply?

- a. If you want to participate as a presenter, please submit your manuscript which will be forwarded to our review committee then you will get your acceptance letter. After that you can get register for the conference by paying registration fee.
- b. If you want to participate as an attendee (observer), please send us your full name & affiliation details via email of the respective conference. We will issue you an official letter & account details will also be provided. After that you can get registered.

3. What are the various types of submissions that can be made to our conferences?

Usually authors submit their manuscripts in Abstracts/full papers form. We appreciate if it is in well written abstract/full paper form.

4. How do I submit my Manuscript?

Please submit your manuscript online. Electronic submission substantially reduces processing & reviewing times. For online submission please go to the homepage of the respective conference in which you want to submit then click in the “Online Submission” option in the below the call for paper which leads you directly to the submission form which will be filled & submitted. In case of unsuccessful submission through online system, kindly submit your manuscript on the respective email address of the conference.

5. Where can I find guidelines for Submission?

Please go to the homepage of the conference, you will find the submission guidelines option in the right side bar of that page.

6. In which format shall I submit my manuscript?

We only accept manuscripts in MS word format.

7. How long the review process takes for acceptance/ rejection?

Usually it takes minimum 5 and maximum 10 days in review process, depending upon the response from reviewers.

8. Shall I get my reviewer's comments?

Along with the acceptance letter, you will be provided with detailed reviewer's report as well.

9. Can I make improvements in my manuscripts after once it has been submitted?

Yes, you can improve your manuscript according to the comments given by reviewers & send back to us.

10. What happens after my article has been accepted?

After your article will be accepted, an official ID is assigned to you. We will issue you an Acceptance letter & provide account information details for payment of registration fee.

11. Where can I find Registration fee details?

Please go to the homepage of the conference, you will find the registration fee details.

12. Is there any option like Skype presentation if I could not attend the conference for presentation?

We normally provide Skype presentation opportunity to those authors who cannot join for presentation. Their conference material and certificates can be handed over to their colleagues attending conference or can be posted via courier services.

13. My paper was already accepted in the past conference, Unfortunately, I was not able to attend there, and can I apply in any of the upcoming conferences?

Yes, as your paper is already accepted in our conference, however you were not able to attend it so on your consent we can shift your abstract / paper to any of the future events.

14. What is the complete publication process?

All papers / abstracts accepted for presentation in this conference will be Blind Peer Reviewed and will be published in the conference proceeding with an ISBN in a CD form. Conference

All papers of the conference will also be reviewed jointly by ISER Review Panel and respective Journals reviewing teams. All the selected authors will be offered for publication in Scopus indexed associated journals subject to the compliance with journals guidelines, terms and conditions.

Institute for Social and Economics Research